Getty Images, AP PhotosArizona defensive end Brooks Reed, left, was drafted 155 spots ahead of teammate Ricky Elmore,because scouts deem Reed's workout numbers trump Elmore's on-field production.Another in a periodic array examining the roles of NFC North newcomers

In the weeks and days leading to the NFL draft public discussion centered the Green Bay Packers' interest in an Arizona defensive end who projected as an outdoor linebacker within their 3-4 scheme Brooks Reed was a 263-pound pass-rusher who displayed superior speed and initial acceleration along the scouting combine.

As it turns out, the Packers drafted an Arizona defensive end who projects as an outdoor linebacker, nfl jersey sizes. But it wasn't Reed, who went to the Houston Texans with the No. 42 overall pick. Instead, it was a player who more than doubled Reed's bag absolute as the Wildcats during the past two seasons. Ricky Elmore posted 21.5 sacks to Reed's eight.5 over that extend merely Elmore was still easily late surrounded the sixth circular (No. 197).

That production disagreement jumped out right away to a numeral of you. Pat of St, football jersey. Paul wanted to know: "How did Ricky Elmore get shoved to the sixth circular with his fantastic production among academy? Do you think this was a steal as the Packers, custom nfl football jerseys?"

Andy of Anew Berlin, Wis., wrote: "I was wondering why everyone was so high aboard Reed and why have I never heard of Ricky Elmore until the Packers drafted him. I hear to a lot of sports conversation radio and I haven't heard anyone bring up the comparison of Reed to Elmore and I am interested within what your opinion was as the vast distinctions within where they were drafted especially for of the numbers they put up by Arizona."

Actually, Pete Dougherty of the Green Bay Press-Gazette broached the subject shortly after the draft. But I think the question brings a classic design contention into specific relief: How ought academy production be weighed versus athleticism and potential? When ought production matter and while shouldn't it?

First, let's reiterate a array of test results that absolutely swayed NFL scouts and their relating common managers, personalized nfl jersey.

Reed ran the fourth-fastest time in the 40-yard dash (four.68 seconds) between defensive linemen along the February scouting combine, create football jersey. He covered the 1st 10 yards among an.54 seconds, tops between defensive linemen and an important tool as scouts to evaluate initial burst from pass-rushers.

Although he weighed surrounded at eight pounds less than Reed (255 pounds versus 263), Elmore tested substantially worse among velocity drills, nike football jerseys. He ran the 40-yard dash in four.96 seconds and his 10-yard split was one, football jersey designer.70 seconds. Elmore then cultivated those times during private workouts, but the dead was cast: Elmore was slow as a projected 3-4 linebacker.

You might scoff along those numbers. It's true, the NFL is populated according hundreds of successful players once deemed too slow. It's too littered with the remains of those who are fast merely can't activity the game. But in the globe of scouting, which includes equal chapters evaluation and projection, velocity is an of the most important attributes of a potential blueprint elect by highest positions.

I reached out to Steve Muench of Scouts Inc, nfl reebok jersey., whose job is to mirror the go of NFL scouts, making his own evaluations meantime too trying to project what the union ambition think of prospects. Steve's evaluation want aid you know why Elmore was still on the board 155 smudges after the Texans selected Reed:

"Elmore was the more fruitful player the past two years merely production can be, and surrounded this case is misleading, nfl kids jersey. Reed recorded the quickest 10-yard split out of all the defensive linemen along the combine last annual. He is substantially faster than Elmore, new nike football uniforms, and he is eight pounds heavier antagonism amounting two inches shorter. He too has longer arms and superior upper-body strength.

None of this would matter much whether it didn't translate to the film. But Reed is quicker off the line and closes better than Elmore, who benefited from the attention that Reed drew from opposing teams. Reed is noticeably stouter against the flee.

Elmore was an of the first to acknowledge how the NFL was viewing him, going to the quite 2011 lengths of posting YouTube videos depicting him jumping out of a pool and later into a truck.

"I was impartial trying to show that I'm athletic and I'm explosive," Elmore told Wisconsin reporters. "... It's the difference between a bag and never getting a bag. If you can't be explosive off the line, an combative tackle is going to beat you behind and you're anyhow an step behind Being explosive is probably the No.one most important thing to being an outside linebacker."

PACKERS RUSH DEFENSE BY DIRECTION

The Packers allowed three.seven yards per rush up the medium 12th best within the federation among 2010. However,while crews ran to the left alternatively right, the Packers allowed five.five yards per rush, 29th surrounded the alliance

Middle Left/Right Rushes 173 219 Yards/Rush three.seven five.five First Downs 27 55 Source: ESPN Stats &,custom jerseys; Information Elmore too spent five weeks working with the father of Packers outdoor linebacker Clay Matthews to assistance acquaint the transition to linebacker. It's been well-chronicled that the Packers don't have a starter locked among opposite Matthews, and as the blueprint shows, the Packers could stand to shore up their outdoor flee barricade in 2011. But can Elmore be the answer? Did the Packers unearth a player who simply knows how to get to the quarterback and play the game,nfl football jerseys? Or is Elmore also slow, and were his college production numbers also skewed to consider that result a realistic feasibility

From a scouts' attitude Muench said that Elmore has the "size and toughness to be an effective run-stopper"merely needs technique go Ultimately, Muench concluded: "Elmore has enough quickness and the motor to develop into an effective role player surrounded Green Bay's 3-4 scheme However, I don't think he has enough speed alternatively agility to amplify into a difference-maker favor Clay Matthews and he may never even amplify into a quality starter."

That's a scout's take, and it clearly mirrors those among the alliance considering Elmore was still available late within the sixth circular Now you have a better fantasy of why Reed was more highly regarded. What we don't and can't know is this: Can the Packers develop Elmore into a player who could an day near his academy production? Coaching, heart and circumstances can't be decided ahead a draft Check behind among three years on that an
